

COURT OF EXCHEQUER, IRELAND.

COPY OF THE CERTIFICATE

Filed by The right honourable the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, The right honourable the Master of the Rolls, and The right honourable the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, in Ireland, in the office of the Auditor General in Ireland; in the case of the Claim of the CHIEF REMEMBRANCER of the Exchequer in Ireland, for COMPENSATION,— Pursuant to Act 4 Geo. IV. c. 76. § 25.

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 16 June 1825.

By The Right honourable Charles Kendal Bushe, Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland; The right honourable Sir William M'Mahon, Baronet, Master of the Rolls in Ireland; and The right honourable John Lord Norbury, Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas in Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for the better administration of Justice in the Equity side of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland;" after reciting that by the said Act, for the better administration of Justice in the Equity side of the said court of Exchequer; it was provided that the Grants of the office of Chief Remembrancer of the said court, heretofore made to Richard Marquis Wellesley, and William Lord Maryborough, and to Richard Wellesley, should cease and determine from the passing thereof; It is enacted, that the Grants of the office of keeper of the Records, appertaining to the said office of Chief Remembrancer, theretofore also made to the said Richard Marquis Wellesley, William Lord Maryborough, and to the said Richard Wellesley, shall be deemed and taken to have ceased from the passing of the said Act, for the better administration of Justice in the said Court; and it is thereby further enacted, that the Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland for the time being, the Master of the Rolls in Ireland, and the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland for the time being, or any two of them, shall, upon application of the said Marquis Wellesley and Richard Wellesley or either of them, make inquiry into and ascertain the particulars of the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments, which appertained to the said offices or either of them, at the time of the passing of the said Act, for the better administration of Justice in the said Court of Exchequer, excluding all fees payable for attendances given by the Deputy of the said Chief Remembrancer, and all fees then received and retained, according to the ancient usage of the said offices or either of them, by any of the subordinate Officers or Clerks named in the said in part recited Act, as a remuneration for their labour; and also excluding all fees or addition of fees which shall, if any, appear to have been introduced by or subsequently to the appointment of the said Richard Marquis Wellesley or William Lord Maryborough to the offices aforesaid, or contrary to the provisions of any Act of Parliament or otherwise contrary to law; and that they shall calculate the fees upon office sheets, as payable upon sheets of 90 and not 72 words, and that they shall ascertain the average annual amount of the said Salaries, Fees and Emoluments of the said offices for the said seven years ending the 1st day of January 1822; and that they shall also make inquiry into and ascertain the Average annual amount of the disbursements of the said offices for or in respect of Salaries to any of the said subordinate Officers or Clerks, coals, candles, stationery, and other incidental expenses necessarily incurred by the Deputy for the time being, for the said seven years ending the 1st day of January 1822; and that they shall certify under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of two of them, the Average amount of the yearly Income of the said offices, so reduced by the exclusion of such Emoluments and Income as aforesaid, for the said period of seven years; distinguishing the gross Income from the net Income, and stating the particulars of the said disbursements out of the gross Income, which constitute the difference between the gross and the net Income, so far as they can ascertain the same; including in the said net Income the produce of all Fees which the said Marquis was lawfully entitled to receive, at the time of the passing of the said Act, subject only to such exclusion and disbursements as aforesaid: And whereas We the said Chief Justice of His Majesty's said Court of King's Bench, the said Master of the Rolls, and the said Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas in Ireland, have in obedience to the said Act, upon the application of the said Richard Wellesley, made inquiry into the particulars of the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments, which at the time of the passing of the said Act, for the better administration of Justice in the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, were appertaining to the said offices: And we find, that the Average annual amount of the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments of the said Offices, for the seven years ending the said 1st day of January 1822, excluding as aforesaid, was 6,553*l.* 15*s.* 2*d.* And We have also made inquiry into the disbursements of the said offices, for or in respect to Salaries to any of the Subordinate Officers and Clerks, coals, candles, stationery, and other incidental expenses, necessarily incurred by the Deputy for the time being, for the said seven years ending the said 1st day of January 1822; and we find, that the Average annual amount of said Disbursements was 717*l.* 0*s.* 1*d.*

We therefore certify, That the gross Average amount of the yearly Income of the said offices, so reduced by the exclusion of such Emoluments and Income as aforesaid, for the said period of seven years, was the said sum of 6,553*l.* 15*s.* 2*d.* And that the net Average amount of the yearly Income of the said offices, for the said period of seven years, was 5,836*l.* 15*s.* 2*d.* And We have, in the first Schedule hereto annexed, set forth a Statement of the particular Fees, Profits and Emoluments, on which such Averages as aforesaid have been taken, and also of the Fees, Profits and Emoluments heretofore received, which we have excluded from such Averages. And We have in the second Schedule hereto annexed, set forth the Particulars of the annual Disbursements, which constitute the difference between the Gross and the Net Income of the said offices.
